On a lovely but somewhat windy day, Stage travelled up the M11 to Audley End House for an annual fixture against The Lord's Taverners Buccaneers and what amazing place to play cricket despite the lack of showers in the changing rooms. The Taverners won the toss and batted first. G. Buck took the Taverners towards their total of 257-6 declared when he was eventually out on 88 being given out LBW to the bowling of Jeff Davis, who ended up with figures of 3 for 56 off 9 overs. The ball did end up on several occasions in the River Cam and one occasion was actually retrieved by one of Richard Wilson's dogs.

Stage's reply was led by James Lawrence 81 and Owen Oldroyd 63 but with little help from the rest, it was left to Sam Sargant and Mike Sadler to offer up stubborn resistance for the 10th wicket resulting in a drawn match. At the end of the match James Lawrence was presented with a Lord's Taverners Pin and had to wear the Buccaneers hat for the rest of the evening. Entertainment in the pub was led by James Lawrence and Ollie Gibbs.
